PROJECTS

PrimeStay Properties - PrimeStay Properties is a modern web platform built with the MERN stack (MongoDB, Express, React, Node.js) and Material-UI, offering a seamless experience for both users and administrators. The user side allows potential renters to browse, search, and book properties with an intuitive interface, while the admin side provides property management tools for owners to add, update, and track their listings. The sleek, responsive design ensures a smooth and efficient experience for all users.

Chat app - Designed and implemented a full-stack chat application using the MERN stack (MongoDB, Express, React, Node.js). Developed RESTful APIs for user authentication, real-time message storage, and retrieval. Utilized React to build a dynamic, user-friendly frontend, while leveraging Node.js and Express for backend logic and API integration. Employed MongoDB for efficient data management, ensuring scalable and reliable storage. Demonstrated proficiency in end-to-end web development and system architecture.
